A big thanks goes out to the Freetown Public Library for the use of their free internet. Support your public library.

(Bet you thought it was going to be from a bar or brewery, didn't cha)

As you may or may not know, Sunday September 8th we are performing at the Freetown Historical Society. The following is from Bob G.

“It will be at the open house at the Freetown Historical Society Museum at 1 Slab Bridge Road in Assonet. This is a free event and all the buildings are open. We will coordinate our performance with others that are taking place. We can customize our dat to what we want. I’m thinking a pop up with our handouts and stuff. We will be there for a couple of hours. We can have a small parade of sorts, play, and sing a few tunes at our convenience. I’ll be talking to them to see what will work for our performance. We should get there around 1:00 to scope out the grounds. It’s an open house so people come and go. There are usually a couple of other small reenactment groups that set up. Check out their website for information. freetownhistoricalsociety.org”
Let’s see a good showing for this.
